RE: Appointment to a Board

Dear Mayor Fiorentini:

I am writing this letter to express my interest in working on one of your boards, such as the zoning board or planning board here in Haverhill.

I am an attorney that recently located my office to 105 Kenoza Avenue here in the city and not too far away from your office. My family and I moved here about six years ago and I want an opportunity to give back the city that has given my family and I so much.

To briefly describe myself, I have been practicing law in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts since 2006. I am a solo practitioner and have been so since I was sworn in over five years ago. My family and I have been loyal supporters to you and your campaign over the past several years.

I hope you will allow me a chance to make a positive difference here in the town I live and love. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Connors
